DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is responsive to the amendment filed on 01/23/2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kojima et al (US Patent Application 2002/0105471 A1).

Kojima et al disclose, in figure 1, an antenna assembly for wireless communication device comprising a signal ground 101, a monopole base element 102, a plurality of parasitic elements 103, wherein each parasitic element comprises a single matching element 104 connected between the parasitic element and the signal ground.

4. Claims 1 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Norgorden (US Patent 2,745,102).

Norgorden discloses, in figure 4, an antenna assembly for wireless communication device comprising a signal ground, a monopole base element 102, a parasitic element 103 having a single matching element 105 connected between the parasitic element and the signal ground.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-9, and 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claims 12-16 are allowed.

Claim 12 recites the base element and the parasitic element which are substantially on top of one another as viewed along the direction of the normal of the circuit board. The patent to Johnson et al does not teach this limitation.

Claims 13-16 are allowed for depending on claim 12.

The patents to Phillips et al are cited as of interest showing the antenna similar to that disclosed.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
